C. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this form. This may happen while the application is being reviewed or after the applicant has been granted a visa. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Danish Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

D. Information about the consequences connected to the applicants illegal stay in Denmark or another Schengen country

If the applicant is issued a visa, the applicant shall leave the Schengen region within the validity of the visa. The visa gives the holder the right to reside in the Schengen region for a predetermined number of days within a further defined period of validity. The period of validity is often longer than the number of days the visa is issued for.

The applicant may neither reside in the Schengen region for more than the permitted number of days, nor arrive or depart outside of the validity period.

If the applicant stays in Denmark or the Schengen region beyond the validity of the visa it may have serious consequences and the applicant may be given a penalty period. During this period the applicant will normally be unable to obtain a Schengen visa to enter Denmark. If the applicant exceeds the visa period by up to 30 days the applicant may be banned for 3 years, and if the applicant exceeds the visa period by more than 30 days a 5 year ban may be imposed.

E. Consequences if the applicant is expelled from Denmark or applies for asylum in Denmark or another Schengen country

If the applicant upon entering Denmark on a visa is expelled either by administrative decision or by court order, or if the applicant applies for asylum in Denmark or another Schengen country and does not leave voluntarily after the final rejection, the applicant will not be eligible for obtaining a new visa for a period of 5 years.

F. Information about possible consequences if the applicant applies for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If the applicant is staying in Denmark on a visa (short term) and submits an application for a residence permit in this country, you need to be aware that the applicant can become ineligible for a visa for 5 years.

However, the abovementioned consequence does not apply in the following cases:

- Application for family reunification according to the Aliens Act section 9(1) (i) or (ii), or section 9 c(1).
- Application for a residence permit in order to study according to the Aliens Act section 9 c(1).
- Application for a residence permit in order to participate in the cities of refuge program according to the Aliens Act section 9 c(4).
- Application for a residence permit in order to work according to the Aliens Act section 9 a(2) (i-iv) or (vi).

Moreover, if there are decisive humanitarian reasons for allowing the applicant to remain eligible for a visa the abovementioned consequence will not apply.

Please note:

If the main purpose of the application for a residence permit is for the applicant to be allowed to remain in Denmark while the case is being processed, although it is evident that a residence permit cannot be granted, the applicant will become ineligible for a visa even though the kind of residence permit in question is included in the list above.
